Editor’s Corner:
“"I came, I came to, I came to believe.” I have heard the first three Steps described this way. So I showed up and explored the possibility that Al-Anon could help me if I gave it a shot. The Power greater than myself has evolved throughout the years. First, it was the God of my upbringing. Then it was the group when I got angry with the God of my upbringing. The tools of the program were a Power that I drew strength from. I used them to help me live in the situation I was in, rather than deny or wish things were different. Sometimes the God of my understanding is that spark within me that results from a nudge or an inspiration or nature or a song or a phrase I heard at a meeting. Something within me but originating outside of me.

I am grateful to Al-Anon for helping me release my God from the confining pigeon hole I had stashed him into. My God was limited by me. I had to get angry and let go of old beliefs that stood in my way. I had to release this God from the confines I had created and trust that somehow I would get a better understanding of this Higher Power.

I have come to realize that the God of my understanding is beyond my capacity to understand. When I approach my Higher Power with only my mind, my intelligence, I get into trouble because my mind wants things to be neat. Everything has a place and it needs to be in that place. My Higher Power doesn’t behave that way. My Higher Power is beyond my capacity to control and analyze. Just as I don’t belong in the alcoholic’s head, I don’t belong in my God’s head. I cannot figure out why someone drinks or what magical act or phrase on my part will enlighten them. I cannot figure out why things happen the way they do in my life. And I cannot blame my God when things happen not according to my plans.

When I was lost and wondered why God had abandoned me, I started reading “Having had a spiritual awakening.” And there is a prayer in that book that hits home for me:

The very air you breathe is My gift to you….
The sight of the sea you so enjoy is My gift to you.
The feel of My power is My gift to you.
Take them within yourself and use them all the days of your life.
Don’t ever limit yourself;
I have more to give than you could ever use.

(p.31 Having Had a Spiritual Awakening B-25)

My Higher Power has an unlimited supply of caring for me. I cannot exhaust this. My Higher Power’s strength and gifts are limitless. I can bring trivial things as well as critical issues to my Higher Power. I don’t have to worry that I am using up my supply of help because it has no limits. Whatever it is, my Higher Power can handle it. “I began to picture my Higher Power as a force that could take in whatever I had to give.” (p. 48 Having Had a Spiritual Awakening B-25)

ALATEEN NEEDS YOU:

Knock, Knock. Who’s there?
The next generation looking for help!

We need YOU to meet soaring demand
Consider carrying your 12th step message through Alateen service

Right now we’re down to one – yes, just a measly one! – active Alateen group in the entire state of Rhode Island…
But the emails and calls are NOT slowing down…Parents, teens, school staff, and social workers all reaching out for help with the family disease of alcoholism because they have nowhere else to turn.

A sad truth. But a silver lining: YOU could help change that sad fact.

Willing to find out how?
Alateen meeting, on February 8th at 10 Davol Square from 10-AM to 12 pm

For additional information, please email Ashley B.: alateenri@gmail.com

ALATEEN CORNER:

It Doesn’t Make It So

Before Alateen, I could never forgive the people who hurt me. I could hold grudges like I could hold a feather — easily. Resentment is a bad habit I couldn’t seem to break. If you hurt me, I was going to hurt you back — ten times worse. No one knew that on the inside I was hurting. I played it off like everything was okay. If you even said the slightest thing wrong or even looked at me wrong, I was coming after you.

But when I started working my program in Alateen, I learned that it’s okay to forgive someone if they hurt me. I have learned to forgive my dad for his drinking. I always used to beat myself up about the stupid stuff I did to myself, but I have forgiven myself for the pain I caused to myself and the harm to my body. I feel so much better knowing that it’s okay to forgive. I’ve learned that if people hurt me, they hurt me. They only affect my mood if I let them. Before, their opinions would convince me that’s how I was. But today, I know that it’s their opinion, and it doesn’t make it true.

Fall 2019 Assembly Report

The Rhode Island Al-Anon Family Groups holds an Area Assembly twice a year. An Area Assembly is the business meeting where groups send their Group Representative to discuss issues pertinent to our Area as well as issues our Delegate may bring to us from WSO, and to vote on behalf of the group. Any and all interested Al-Anon and Alateen members are encouraged to attend as well.

Twenty-three Al-Anon members gathered in Providence for the Fall Assembly. In addition to the required business of holding elections and approving the 2020 budget, those in attendance participated in a Writing Workshop for the Forum and Lifelines, a brainstorming activity to gather ideas for Public Outreach, and an Alateen Group Sponsorship presentation.

At the end of the day, participants were asked to provide feedback on the Assembly. Overall, participant responses indicated that they enjoyed the day and the activities and that they felt their opinions were heard. Here is some of the feedback.

• In response to a question about how the Assembly helped with one’s personal recovery, one person said “The Assembly reminded me I have skills and tools” and another said “Community – working with others and listening to and sharing with members I’m still getting to know.”

• In response to a question about the Agenda topics being timely, informative, and useful, one participant said “Yes, opportunity to observe the Traditions in action.”

• Other comments included “Get more people here; encourage ‘everyone bring one’” and “Breakout session so much more engaging than just viewing reports.”

We also received some constructive feedback regarding the budget presentation and financial discussion.

• Financial discussion needs more structure, either in expectations or allowance for questions and dissent. Many people have opinions without knowledge.

• Financial reports – budget vs. projected. Year End actuals + history, charts, include projected income.

Many thanks to everyone for your feedback.

Phyllis H., Area Chair

FORUM ARTICLE:

Today, I know that love is unconditional

I grew up not knowing the difference between shame and guilt. Shame told me that I was fundamentally unworthy, insufficient, and unlovable: a “wrong” person. Guilt is what I feel when I make choices that disrupt the harmony between myself and my Higher Power, other people, or the universe.

My shame came from physical and emotional abuse suffered in childhood, a lack of validation and support at home, and a rule-oriented religious practice that seemed to say I could almost accidentally be damned. I also discovered, at age 11, that I was gay. I thought it was something horribly unique to me that made me an unfit human being. Feelings of shame and guilt made it very difficult for me. Since I saw myself as “wrong,” the hope of being a good person was hard to realize.

Shame robbed me of the thing that I could be loved. I didn’t see that I deserved love, which had a huge negative impact on my relationship with my Higher Power. God was a fierce judge, not a loving parent.

Shame meant I didn’t understand that love is unconditional. It seemed to me that God’s love came with many conditions and catches, and had to be earned. I thought this was true of human love, too. It led me to set conditions about whom and when I would love; conditions so impossible to meet that I couldn’t love freely.

In my months in Al-Anon, I have never felt judged by any other member. Instead, I received the message that I am loved just as I am, character defects and all. The first three Steps are teaching me how to trust my Higher Power, Al-Anon members and principles, and the universe.

I have learned that my Higher Power is there to help me grow and change; pick me up when I stumble or fall, and teach me that I am loved unconditionally.

I am not a finished product, but I am finding enough serenity in the Al-Anon program to make hope take root and grow. I am starting to feel some gratitude. I am learning to live without unreasonable fear. I am starting to feel love, and return it.

MEMBERS SHARE:

(Hi Everyone, Below are the sharings from the area assembly writing workshop this fall.)

A New Balance

A new balance in my life was a courageous step when I as strong enough to use the Al-Anon tools. As a recent widow, I needed to readjust my thinking. Using my fourth step inventory and establishing my priorities of self-care was a big change. It was a big change to think of me first. This process has been working in many new ways: boundaries, listening, not judging, keeping an open mind, taking a nap, giving myself permission to do nothing, and most al all Gratiitiude and Prayer to the God of my understanding.

Slowly, I’m becoming aware of my need to grow differently beyond being a wife and mother and sister and friend. I try to reach out to the Newcomers, have volunteered to do service work, and am slowly growing in a different way. I know this awareness is God-given and I like it and plan to keep it and give it away.

Coming to Al-Anon was not a decision that I made. I don’t really even remember my first meeting because I was such a mess. I just found myself there after my common-law husband of 25 years walked out on me. We had survived so much together. I met him in my early 20’s and I was a drinker, and he was in drug and alcohol treatment at the time. I gave up drinking to help him. He became my addiction. I would spend the next 2 decades either trying to save him or myself. We both used drugs and drank together, but when we finally gave it up, I became dependent on his moods. I could not take care of myself but I seemed to think I could take care of him.

I never imagined being without him after everything we had overcome. To find myself alone now was heart breaking. I had no idea how sick I was until I started going to Al-Anon and saw how the women in my group, and the men too, had so much in common with me. I had to learn that a healthy person gets up in the morning and has breakfast and takes a shower and wants to look good and feel good. I had not spent money on myself in years but I knew how to purchase for my family. I shopped for everyone except for myself. I had to learn not to feel guilty taking care of me. I had to learn how to do everything for me now. That is when I began to understand that I was not alone now. My Higher Power was just waiting.

My Higher Power was standing by and waiting for me. He knew I would be needing Him so He was just waiting for the call. I called Him when I could not stop crying. I did not have to stop crying for I could call to Him in my own mind and I found as I spoke to Him I did not need to cry. Now I look forward to our conversations and I know that He will always take care of me and always had — all I had to do was ask and listen.

DISTRICT 2:

What’s NEWs in District 2 – December 2019 Meeting Report

Once a month, District 2 meets for about an hour at a named location to unite the individual groups within the district. Topics range from informing groups about Area or World Service news to planning program related events. District meetings also coordinate service and public outreach projects and as such are a great way to see the program in action and get involved in service.

The December 2019 District 2 Meeting was held at the Area Office in Cranston. We opened the meeting with the serenity prayer, introductions, and reading the Tradition of the Month & the Concept of the Month. The minutes from October & November were then read and accepted.

First, Alateen needs were discussed. At the time of this meeting, it was shared that the previous Alateen meeting records were inaccurate. Instead of there being only one Alateen meeting, there were actually two. One at North Kingstown High School for their students only, and the other a free standing Providence meeting Sunday nights.

Next, we revisited the discussion of Virtual Meeting Attendance as an option for members to “participate” in the District meeting if they can’t attend in person. One member researched conference call options since concerns were previously expressed about anonymity and finding a quiet, private location for the meeting time. This member reported back that there are options to conference in up to 5 people using a smartphone, which could be put on speaker, in addition to a service called FreeConference.com, though the latter isn’t actually free. It was suggested that we keep this topic on the agenda for 3 months for discussion.

In addition, we revisited the discussion of finding a consistent day, time, and location for our District meetings. It was suggested we try planning to hold our meetings on the 2nd Tuesday of every month for the first Quarter (January, February, March) at the Area Office in Cranston at 7pm. All present were in favor of this and also agreed that if there is no school in Cranston due to snow, then there would be no meeting that month.

While there were no new updates on Task Force Guidelines for task for chairs and no new group meeting concerns brought to the table, there was discussion around Newcomers. It was shared that some groups had been getting alot of newcomers but that those newcomers weren’t coming back to those meetings. Feedback from newcomers revealed that they felt singled out and maybe there is a way to change that. For instance, instead of asking, “Are there any newcomers present?” to consider changing the wording to be more inclusive, such as “If there are any newcomers present…we welcome you…it is suggested that you attend 6 meetings…please feel free to stay and talk to any one of us after the meeting.” Also, if a particular meeting offers a newcomer’s meeting, simply say that. Another suggestion was to consider having a Greeter for the meeting so the interaction could be one-on-one.

Lastly, we briefly touched on dysfunctional meetings. Concerns were expressed about a Group Rep (GR) who finished their term; the group not having elected a new GR; and that group not being open to suggestions or to following group guidelines.

That wraps up another District 2 Report! Our next District 2 Meeting is Tuesday February 11th, 2020 at 7pm at the Area Office (106 Rolfe Square, Cranston). All are welcome to attend. We hope to see you there!
COME TO THE NEXT DISTRICT MEETING ON FEBRUARY 13 TO HELP CREATE DISTRICT 3 ALATEEN MEETINGS!

Experienced Al-Anon members will attend to inspire and guide us in creating District 3 Alateen meetings. District 3 currently has requests for Alateen meetings in Tiverton, Warren, Portsmouth, and Middletown, and we want to serve young people looking for recovery as soon as possible. The District meets regularly on the 2nd Thursday of each month at 6p in the Portsmouth Library, and our next meeting is February 13th.

Spring Assembly:
Toby and Dan are our co-chairs of the RIAFG Spring Assembly that District 3 is hosting at Emmanuel Church in Newport on May 30th 2020 at 9:30-3:30p. We are asking each D3 meeting to donate funding for the assembly, and to each send three members to the assembly.

Meeting News:
• The new Sunday night meeting in Newport will be celebrating its first anniversary this May and 10-15 members attend weekly.
• Unfortunately, the District determined to close the Friday night Tiverton meeting due to sporadic attendance.

From outgoing District Representative Terry L:
January was my last district meeting as official DR. Thank you to all Al-Anon members to who provided service and support to grow Al-Anon in District 3, and personally to me as DR. I am so grateful for your service of positivity, creativity, initiative, and energy toward strengthening the District 3 service body of RIAFG.

I encourage all members in all Disto consider growing your knowledge of and service in the greater Al-Anon organization. The 12th Step encourages us to “carry this message to others” and the 1st Concept explains that “The ultimate responsibility and authority for Al-Anon world services belongs to the Al-Anon groups.” That means that it is imperative to our personal recovery to give service toward strengthening the greater Al-Anon organization, so that more friends and families of alcoholics may find help. I hope that I have contributed to strengthening District 3 and RI Al-Anon Family Groups during my tenure, but I know that this service has grown my recovery immeasurably.

Please consider becoming Group Rep, District Rep, an RIAFG Officer, an Alateen sponsor, as well as an RIAFG Office Volunteer. It takes many hands to lift Rhode Island Al-Anon Family Groups and we need YOU to contribute your gifts! Know that service is as much as you can put into it, and you are more talented than you know. ☺

Gratefully in Service,
RI District 3

For a Good Night’s Sleep

The Just for Tonight Bookmark (M-81) offers thoughtful reflections on Al-Anon principles to help prepare for a peaceful, restful night. It serves as a perfect companion piece to Al-Anon’s classic Just for Today Bookmark (M-12).

“Just for tonight, I will be grateful. I will give thanks for the past day, its failures as well as its successes, its sadness as well as its joy, and its pain as well as its pleasure. I will take comfort in knowing that every event and circumstance that occurred today can be used for my good and the good of others.” From the Just for Tonight Bookmark.

STEP TWO: Came to believe that a Power greater than ourselves could restore us to sanity.

TRADITION TWO: For our group purpose there is but one authority — a loving God as He may express Himself in our group conscience. Our leaders are but trusted servants; they do not govern.

CONCEPT TWO: The Al-Anon Family Groups have delegated complete administrative and operational authority to their Conference and its service arms.
