How Al-Anon Works: The Links of Service

By Missy B.

The links of service are a vital part of how Al-Anon Family Groups function as a whole. The groups help and serve members; members, in turn, help and serve the group. They do this by being as informed as possible and by using the Service Manual (sent to every registered group with a current mailing address).

Each link of service reports to the next, starting with the groups and ending with the Area World Service Committee, where decisions are made for Rhode Island Al-Anon Family Groups as a whole. Links help the Area to be aware of everything that's happening, because for individuals to try to undertake that would be almost impossible; with each link working, information can flow smoothly up and down the chain.

To learn more about the links of service, check out the pamphlet Links of Service (S-28, FREE!) and your group's Service Manual.

All of this literature is available at the Area Office (see last page).

What are the Links of Service?

Each group elects a Group Representative (GR) and an Alternate Group Representative (see the Service Manual for a description of each job and its duties). That Group Representative attends District meetings to gather information from a District Representative (DR). (Rhode Island is broken up into 5 Districts.) Group Representatives then bring the information back to their group.

Assembly Reports

Part 1 of a Monthly Series on the November 2007 Assembly

The Next Area Assembly Is June 14th

What issues is your group/district facing? What would you like to hear more about/discuss at the next assembly? Tell your GR or DR, or contact the office and let us know. Your voice is important! Make sure your group is represented!

International Convention

The 2008 Al-Anon International Convention, called "Connecting People—Around the World—Al-Anon Family Groups," will be held July 4–6, 2008 in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

All are welcome to attend the July 3rd service workshops. Each Area and country is represented in a parade of countries! Let's stand together and show the world who we are and spread our love for this fellowship to the world.

Be sure to register early! Hotel and camping accommodations are available. Registration material is available through your GR and online at: <http://www.al-anon.alateen.org/members/2008int.php>.

Assembly Summary

An Assembly is our opportunity to discuss and vote on issues that are important to the groups, hear what's going on at the Area (state) and World Service Office (WSO) levels, and to discuss our plans or needs.

The last Area Assembly was held on Saturday, November 17 at St. Joseph's Hospital. Area World Service Committee (AWSC) members, Group Representatives (GRs), and interested members of our RI Al-Anon Family Groups (that's you!) attended.

Agenda topics included:

- ▲ Breakout session on shortcomings and strengths of our meetings (see below)
- ▲ Area officer reports (will be published in future issues of Lifelines)
- ▲ Delegate's report on sponsorship, the newcomer's welcome, the new guidelines for cooperation with AA, a WSC Question Brainstorm session (articles on these topics will be published in future issues of Lifelines), and the 2008 International Conference (see sidebar)
- ▲ Closing session on key take-aways

Group Representative Breakout Session

During the first morning session, Group Representatives broke into groups to discuss the shortcomings and strengths of our meetings. We talked about what is going on in our meetings, where we are strong, and where we need each other:

Group Strengths:

- ▲ Use of service manual
- ▲ Rotate service positions
- ▲ Education of guidelines, traditions, concepts
- ▲ Use of links of service
- ▲ Using group conscience to resolve problems
- ▲ Temporary sponsors
- ▲ Have people volunteer for newcomers meeting will improve the chance of people coming back

Shortcomings:

- ▲ Lack of attendance
- ▲ Use of AA literature
- ▲ Dominance by "old-timers"
- ▲ Not feeling heard (having a voice)
- ▲ Not aware of "tools" of the program
- ▲ Lack of sponsorship
- ▲ Old timers are leaving the program

Alateen Spoken Here

Sharings on the Serenity Prayer

Lindsay, CO

Accepting alcoholism as a family disease can be a difficult task. Finding peace of mind after I accept the disease can also be hard. The Serenity Prayer can make those things much easier.

"God, grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change..." I know I can't change the alcoholics' disease and that I need to accept the fact that they are suffering from alcoholism.

"...courage to change the things I can..." I know I can change my attitude and the way I handle situations in my life.

"...and wisdom to know the difference." I know that I have choices that I have to make. A choice that changed my life was coming to Alateen. When someone's attitude or their actions frustrate me, I sit back, breathe, and say the Serenity Prayer. This allows me to react to this situation in a more peaceful, healthy way.

The things I can change are my attitudes and my choices. When I think about my week or certain problems I've had, I don't think in such a negative way anymore.

Thank God for the Serenity Prayer!

Nick, CO

The Serenity Prayer tells me that my parents' drinking isn't my fault and that I can't control it. I can change the way I'm thinking about the alcoholic. I will have to look at the situation in a different way. I think about how uncomfortable it is, and try to find out what the best thing about it is.

Younger Members

Rolf, age 12, Oregon

The Serenity Prayer can help me realize that I need to move on when it says: "accept the things I cannot change." It means I just can't stay in that spot, I need to move on, change or help what I can, and stop dwelling on the past. Where it says: "courage to change the things I can" means to me that I need to go and do something good for myself or others.

Please Read at All Alateen Meetings

Attention Alateens: This page is for you! Alateen is a vital part of RI Al-Anon Family Groups and, as such, should be represented in its newsletter.

If you are an Alateen who likes to write or express yourself artistically, please consider submitting something for the next issue, either on your own or as a group. Here are just a few ideas, but feel free to come up with your own creative contribution:

- ▲ Write a couple of paragraphs on an Alateen topic or on your experience in the program in general
- ▲ Create a piece of artwork (program-related, of course)
- ▲ Create a word search using words that relate to a particular topic

Please e-mail your submissions to Deb E. at destre99@yahoo.com, or drop off or mail them to the Al-Anon office (see last page).

Please provide your first name and/or the town or group to which you belong, unless you wish to remain anonymous.

Meeting Needs Support

Do you know how the Eleventh Concept applies to our everyday lives? Do you know what an LDC is? Do you know how to place principles above personalities?

Neither do we.

Come learn with us at the Friday night "When I Got Busy, I Got Better" Concept and Service study meeting. We meet Friday nights at 7:30 PM at Bradley Hospital.

Links of Service

The District Representative is a link to the Area World Service Committee (AWSC). He or she attends Area (state-level) meetings to gather information to bring back to the District.

The Area World Service Committee receives information by electing and sending a Delegate or an Alternate Delegate to the World Service Conference (WSC), which happens once a year, usually in April.

The Delegate is the Area's link to the World Service Office (WSO) and the World Service Committee. He or she receives lots of information about Al-Anon Family Groups to be passed on at the Area Meetings and at the Area Assemblies, where Area World Service Committee, District, and Group Representatives meet to exchange information with each other. The Delegate is also responsible for carrying the voice and ideas of our Area back to the World Service Committee.

Using the Links of Service

These links can be used in many ways. For instance, when a District undertakes a Public Outreach project, it contacts the Area Public Outreach Coordinator, to inform them of what the District will be doing, so that double-headed management is avoided.

Links are also used when cooperating with Alcoholics Anonymous (AA). Letters are written to AA asking for their participation in Al-Anon Family Group events, usually by the Area AA Liaison or the Public Outreach Coordinator. AA contacts Al-Anon Family Groups to invite their participation in events as well. Information would be sent to the AA Liaison, who then reports to the Area, which in turn can pass that information on to the District Representatives, Group Representatives, and groups. Areas need to be informed and the best way to do that is by using all links accessible to them.

Groups that have questions or encounter problems can use the links by using their Group Representatives to help them use the Service Manual, Traditions, and Concepts. A group can ask a District Representative to attend their meeting, if necessary, or ask their Area for help, and finally, if all else fails, the World Service Office.

The links of service mean many things to me: a sense of accountability to one another, while allowing each individual to do their job; responsibility to each other, our groups, and the program as a whole; to know that we don't have to "do it alone" anymore; we are able to use the links by contacting and working with others who have come before us in our service positions. The links have helped me see just how Al-Anon functions as a whole, from the WSO to my home group in Rhode Island. The depth of the links unravels a little more for me every time I use them and I seem to find more and more links available, just waiting to be used as I continue on my journey through recovery.
