Dry January

Every year, people declare they're abstaining from alcohol for the entire first month. It's called Dry January. Bars and restaurants create special mocktails. Most "dry" folks report feeling better, healthier, more productive in the weeks without booze. That's great.

In Al-Anon, we know what works. We know that lasting change comes when we have the help of our Higher Power, when we muster courage, and when we deliberately work through the twelve steps. It's not something we do for 30 days; we do it for life.

Year in and year out, you can change your life for good by working your program of recovery. Participate in meetings, read daily literature. Do service when and where you can. Keep those bookmarks on the refrigerator door. Listen to speaker tapes while you take your daily stroll. Have coffee with your sponsor once a month, whether you need it or not.

Results are not guaranteed, of course, but most Al-Anon folks share that they experience positive, lasting changes from working their program. It works if you work it! Lifelines and RIAFG are always here with resources and support.

The Al-Anon steps work dry or wet, rain or shine, 365 days a year. We're so glad you're here and on the path to recovery! RIAFG wishes you a very happy 2023.

Gratefully in service,
Eden C., Lifelines Editor lifelines.riafg@gmail.com

Volunteers Needed
If not YOU, then WHO?

Imagine needing help and waiting a week to get a response! Currently, the Rhode Island Al-Anon Family Group’s office and Literature Distribution Center in Cranston has TWO volunteers. We'd love more! Below is a brief description of what being an office volunteer entails. Training is provided.

In Office volunteer’s responsibilities: answer the phone, return phone calls, mail meeting schedules, greet visitors and fill literature orders.

At home volunteers’ responsibilities: check voicemail, return calls, mail meeting lists, and when necessary contact the office coordinator.

This is a perfect opportunity for YOU to give back to the Program.

For more information and/or to volunteer, email the office coordinator at: office.riafg@gmail.com or call the office at 401-781-0044.

Let it begin with me.
When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help let the hand of Al-Anon and Alateen always be there, and let it begin with me.

A New Year, a new month and a new beginning of the 12 Steps with Step 1. Acceptance, surrender and letting go are the guiding principles. Letting go of 2022 and remembering all of the year's gifts of Al-Anon recovery opens my path to receive more recovery in 2023. Maybe the alcoholic found sobriety in 2022 and then again maybe they did not. Either case, surrendering and humbling accepting that I cannot control another person into sobriety, makes Step 1 the foundation for the remaining 11 Steps of my Al-Anon recovery. 2023 can bring the hope of working each step to better love myself and in turn continue to love the alcoholic(s) regardless if they have found sobriety. I can love them where they are at and focus on my own self-care.

Step 1 yields the gift of understanding that although I am powerless over a disease, I can choose to not be a victim of the disease or of the alcoholic(s). This understanding provides freedom, the freedom to achieve sanity as promised in Step 2, a promise that has come true in my life. This sanity comes from a loving power greater than myself and the disease.

Each subsequent step has its own gifts and each new year a different gift on a specific step may be received, gifts of continuous learning. I look forward to an abundant 2023 full of growth and happiness.
