Area 49 JULY 2022

Editor's Corner

Freedom

Managing someone else's alcoholism can feel like being trapped in a locked room with windows instead of walls. We see outside, but we don't know how to free ourselves.

We constantly monitor our qualifiers while neglecting to examine our own behavior. We make excuses and threats, and lose all sense of perspective. Part of our disease is thinking we have the power to change others. We think we're responsible for everyone and everything.

We are free to do what we want. But when we want someone to stop drinking, we can end up surrendering our own freedom as we try make others do what we want them to do. We leave ourselves free to . . . take away others' freedom.

True freedom is available to all of us, at any time. It starts with Step One.

Want to read more about the freedom available through Al-Anon? Check out the workbook Reaching For Personal Freedom, available for order through the Al-Anon site or through our RIAFG.org literature coordinator.

Every time you order literature, you help support Al-Anon in your community and in the world. We appreciate it!

We are grateful for the freedom and serenity we experience through Al-Anon.

 - Choose a secretary for the thought force
 - Review the meeting etiquette (attached below)
- Discuss our future meeting schedule and decide ongoing day/time, frequency of meetings, length of meetings, and location of meetings
- Decide what relevant research needs to be done on the charge prior to our second meeting

ALL ARE WELCOME TO ATTEND. Please share this information with your groups and at any Al-Anon meetings you attend.

Office Appeal

Let it begin with me.
When anyone, anywhere, reaches out for help
let the hand of Al-Anon and Alateen always be there,
and let it begin with me.

Each of us can be that hand.

Imagine being someone looking for help and it takes a week to get a response!

Currently, the Rhode Island Al-Anon Family Group's office and Literature Distribution Center in Cranston has ONE volunteer - YES, just one volunteer.

This is a perfect opportunity for YOU to give back to the Program.

Below is a brief description of what being an office volunteer entails. Training is provided.

In Office volunteer's responsibilities:

- Answer any phone calls.
- Retrieve recorded messages, return calls and record them in our log.
- Mail meeting schedules when requested by callers.
- Greet visitors to the office. They are usually coming for literature.
- Open and distribute the mail
- Fill literature orders and call purchaser back with status.

At home volunteers' responsibilities:

- Access the Al-Anon voicemail account from their home phone, retrieving messages
- Call back per requests made on the messages
- Mail a meeting list or refer the caller to riafg.org
- Keep a brief written log of calls returned
- Communicate any actions required at the office with the Office Coordinator

For more information and/or to volunteer, email the office coordinator at: office.riafg@gmail.com or call the office at 401-781-0044.

Elaine H., Office Coordinator

Got Literature?

How to order Literature from the RI Literature Distribution Center

1. Mail in the literature request form along with a check to: RIAFG, 106 Rolfe St., Cranston, RI 02910. Or
2. Print the request form from www.riafg.org. Click on "Literature." Scroll down to "Order Form," click on it and print it out. To see the catalog of literature, click on "View Catalog." Fill in the form with the literature you want, the unit price, the quantity of that literature and the total amount for that literature. Once the form is complete, add up the totals.

*If you are requesting that the literature be mailed to you, there is a shipping and handling charge of 8% of the total of the order or $5.00, whichever is greater. Include a check for the full amount, the name and address to ship it to, and a phone contact in case the office has any questions.

*If you are picking up the order, mail the order form to RIAFG, then call the office at 401-781-0044. Be sure to include on the form a contact name and phone number. Speak with whoever is in the office or leave a message. You can include a check for the total or pay when you pick up. Especially if it is a large order, mailing it ahead of time gives the office volunteer the time to put the order together and notify you of any problems.

Please note that if you are requesting only a few items, and you want to do pick up, you may call the office with the info.

Loving My Daughter, Hating The Disease

After years in the Al-Anon program without much recovery, I was finally able to accept Step One and admit my powerlessness over alcoholism with the help of my Higher Power. My denial had been deep, but last year I witnessed my beloved daughter, active in her disease, creating a dangerous environment for her children.

She relapsed repeatedly within a short time span, leaving us to care for her little ones. My Higher Power spoke to me and showed me that it is possible to still love my daughter and hate the disease.

I needed to take immediate action for the safety of her children, and I did. I admitted I was powerless over alcoholism, and this acceptance allowed me the freedom to think clearly and also to be respectful to my child in the midst of a firestorm. I reached out for a Sponsor and, despite a tumultuous year, have experienced peace and serenity.

RIAFG Open Area Positions: 1

AA Liaison

The AA Liaison (Al-Anon member) is a link between Al-Anon and AA. They attend the monthly RI AA Convention Committee meetings as a voting member in all affairs except “finances” and attend the RI AA Convention. The AA Liaison obtains the Al-Anon main speaker, coordinates travel and accommodations (including communicating the speaker’s needs to the Committee) and hosts the speaker for the weekend. They work with the Literature Coordinator to ensure that Conference Approved Literature (CAL) is available at the Convention and communicate the Literature Coordinator’s needs to the Committee, i.e., number of tables, chairs, etc.

The AA Liaison provides the Al-Anon meeting schedule, topics, and coordinates Al-Anon members to chair the scheduled Al-Anon meetings. They inform Al-Anon/Alateen groups in the Area about the convention and cooperate with AA in publicizing the convention within the fellowship including posting the flyer, registration forms, and/or registration link on the Al-Anon website, in the Lifelines newsletter, RI Area Al-Anon GRs, and Area World Service Committee members. If requested, the AA Liaison will assist in the Al-Anon Workshop including obtaining the AA Speaker.

Alternate Delegate

If the Delegate is unable to finish his/her 3-year term, the Alternate Delegate steps in to complete the term as the new Delegate and represents the Area for the remainder of the term at the annual World Service Conference. The Alternate Delegate works along with the Delegate as much as possible in communicating with the groups. He/she can also provide valuable service to the Area by visiting Area groups and districts; assisting Area committees; developing Alateen groups, encouraging Al-Anon members to sponsor them, and setting up Alateen workshops; other responsibilities as assigned by the Area.

Secretary

The Secretary attends to all regular secretarial work and takes minutes of all Area meetings and Assemblies. These minutes should be sent to the Area World Service Committee members soon after the meeting (within two weeks as a goal) and be recorded in a permanent minute book to be passed along to a successor. Minutes are also kept in a log at the Area office. A minute template is also available.

Alateen Coordinator

The Alateen Coordinator is the vital link of communication between the WSO and the Area on matters relating to Alateen. This coordinator is a resource for Alateen at all levels of service. He/she is responsible for the training and certification of Al-Anon Members involved in Alateen Service (AMIAS). The Alateen Coordinator works with the Alateen Process Person to submit all required forms to WSO, manages the recertification of Al-Anon members involved in Alateen Service (AMIAS), and verifies certification of members serving Alateen for Al-Anon conventions and other events with Alateen participation. He/she serves as Chair of the RI Alateen Safety Guidelines Committee. The Area Alateen Coordinator is required to be certified as an Al-Anon Member in Alateen Service (AMIAS).

Alateen Process Person

The Area Alateen Process Person (AAPP) serves as the Area's designated Alateen Contact with the WSO Group Records Department regarding Alateen forms and registration requirements, and works with the Alateen Coordinator implementing the Alateen Behavioral and Safety Requirements, and assisting with filing forms and training of and certification of AMIAS. The Alateen Process Person is required to be certified as an Al-Anon Member in Alateen Service (AMIAS).

Email Coordinator

The email coordinator maintains the Area email account, checking it regularly for messages, and responding to messages as needed or forwarding them to other AWSC members for an appropriate response. Members' anonymity is protected at all times.

Workshop Coordinator for 2022

The Workshop Coordinator heads the Workshop Committee, which plans our annual Fall Workshop.

The purpose of the Workshop is to allow members to enjoy a day of recovery while participating in giving back to the program (Participation Is the Key to Harmony).

All proceeds help the Area as a whole, which allows us to be self-supporting. The Workshop Coordinator chairs periodic committee meetings and secures volunteers who take on responsibilities for registration, decorating, hospitality, master of ceremonies, speakers, meetings, food, craft table, Alateen participation, AA participation, Literature table, and Public Outreach table.

This person troubleshoots and supports these tasks as necessary.
